

Privacy Policy

This web site is owned and operated by or on behalf of Mission Africa of Auburn WA. We recognize that visitors to our site may be concerned about the information they provide to us and how we use that information. By visiting www.missionafrica.us, you accept the practices described in this statement. This Privacy Statement may be changed or updated at any time.

Our Policies:

Mission Africa uses its best efforts to respect and protect the privacy of our online visitors and donors. We will not share your personal information with any third parties. This includes name, address, financial information, and email address.

Data Collection - Personal Information:

We do not collect personally identifiable information from you unless you provide it to us voluntarily and knowingly. If you make a donation, register for an event or register for our newsletter, for example, we may collect your name, mailing address, telephone number, email address, and credit card information.

If you provide personal information, we may enter that information into our database and contact you in order to:

- Supply you with information, including Mission Africa news, events and services
- Request voluntary time or monetary contributions to Mission Africa

We use PayPal when processing financial transactions through our site. PayPal has the standard security protocol, which makes it difficult for anyone to intercept the information. Inside Mission Africa, data is stored on password-protected servers. Our staff is educated about the importance of safeguarding your information. However, such precautions do not guarantee that our web site is invulnerable to all security breaks. Mission Africa makes no warranty, guarantee or representation that the use of our web site is protected from viruses, security threats or other vulnerabilities and that your information will always be secure.

Standard web server traffic pattern information:

General traffic, site usage and length of stay information is collected. This type of information is used to help Mission Africa improve the functionality of our web site and such information is not linked to individual visitors.
